

28 June 1984

CIA SHAKE-UP

SAWYER: There's been a top-level shake-up at the CIA. Four officials with responsibilities involving Central America are being shifted to new jobs started July 1st. The agency insists the musical chairs is a routine rotation, that it's not related to congressional anger over covert operations in Nicaragua and El Salvador.